

WASLI is committed to the development of the profession of sign language interpreting worldwide

MESSAGES OF GREETINGS TO THE WASLI 2007 CONFERENCE Segovia, Spain 13-15 July 2007

Timothy Tinat – NIGERIA

Sorry to inform you that I will not be able to attend the up coming GM of WASLI in Spain. This is because of the demise of the National President of the Nigerian Deaf Association who is my Elder Brother. But you can count on my support at anytime, and I wish you a successful GM.

Angela Jones, RID President - USA

Have a terrific WASLI conference.

Cristina Perez Pereira, BRAZIL

I do hope it will be an excellent conference and success for us all sign language interpreters from the entire world (specially for us...third, fourth and so forth...world...). Best wishes!

Sarah Glendenning, Manchester City College, ENGLAND

We send our best wishes to our fellow colleagues and especially those who work in Education.

Elisabeth Tomar, Interpreter Sweden

I hope that the conference will be success. I had the pleasure of attending the conference in Worcester in 2005. It was a historical moment for all of us. And I am happy that I had the opportunity to be there. I wish you all the best. Exchange knowledge and laughter, listen and learn from each other. From my heart to all of you, enjoy and have fun. Swedish hugs.

Ann Geu Hwan – Korean Association of Sign Language Interpreters

We are very sorry that we will be absent from the 2007 Conference. But we are working hard to develop the profession of sign language interpreting in Korea and to truly work in cooperation with the Deaf community. We look forward to meeting our fellow global colleagues and we wish you the best.

National Alliance of Black Interpreters, Inc.

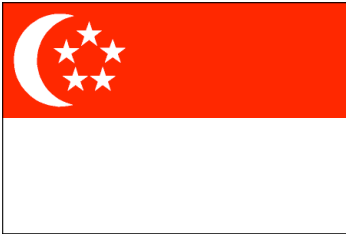

Leandra Williams, President of NAOBI – National Alliance of Black Interpreters – US

Best wishes for a successful conference

Adele Routliff, OASLI – Ontario Association of Sign Language Interpreters, Canada

I wish the conference every success

Claudine Chan – Interpreter, Singapore Association of the Deaf

'Greetings from Singapore! Although we are unable to come for the conference, we would like to wish everyone at the conference a meaningful and power-packed discussion and we hope to be able to see you at the next meeting. Keep those hands moving!'

The Singapore Association for the Deaf

Yahyi Jabbi – The Gambia

I wish you all a very good and enjoyable WASLI conference 2007. All the sign language interpreters are sending you there best and warm greetings. We are unable to attend physical but our hearts and minds are with you spiritually.

THE FOLLOWING MESSAGES WERE RECEIVED TOO LATE TO BE READ OUT AT THE CONFERENCE BUT ARE GIVEN HERE SO THEY ARE ON RECORD

Khalil Alawni – Palestine

Wish you a successful conference.

Maryna Liferova – President of the Ukraine Association of Sign Language Interpreters

First of all let me express my gratitude for your invitation to participate in the 2007 WASLI International Conference. It is a great honour for Ukraine Association of Sign Language Interpreters (UASLI) and personally for me as its President to be invited on such an exciting event.

Unfortunately, I'll not be able to attend the Conference because of some financial problems of our young newly established organisation and lack of time to meet all visa requirements. But I really hope to have a fruitful cooperation with you in the future.

I am sure you will have a very successful event.

I am really sorry because of too much inconvenience and wish you all the best

Ronald Perez – President ASOIVE, Venezuela

I am sad that I am unable to present at such an important event. Please extend to everyone at the conference my good wishes for an exciting conference.

WASLI wishes to thank all the above for their messages of greetings.
